

Young Vic

Sour Lemons become The What If Experiment

January 2022

Sour Lemons closed down in December 2021, and they have transitioned their anti-racism work into a separate legal entity - The What If Experiment. You can read more about their journey from their CEO and Founder Sade Banks here.

The Young Vic's Big Squeeze partnership with this team continues, as we work with the newly formed What If Experiment to dismantle systemic racism within the theatre.